"John Parker of Lexington," by Theodore Parker, 9th son of Deacon Thomas Parker, published 1843:

"The Dynicimals" state: "1635. Came this year, Thomas Parker, a farmer, who embarked at London, March 11, 1635." May 17, 1637 made a freeman in Lunenburg.

'Genealogical History of the Town of Reading,
Mass.' by Hon. Lilley Eaton, 1874.

Published Vital Records of Reading, Mass. They prove that Deacon Thomas Parker had two daughters named Mary, as well as two daughters named Sarah, and two sons named Joseph. According to the quoted statement of Katherine⁴ Parker, 1735-1802 (Timothy³-Nathaniel²-Deacon Thomas¹) of Roxbury, Mass, who with her brother Timothy⁴ visited their father's Reading, Mass. Parker relatives in 1751, "her Father was one of fourteen children and his Grandfather the Emigrant had that number also." The records prove her correct about the fourteen children of Ensign Nathaniel Parker of Reading; and probabilities are correct about Deacon Thomas Parker's family, the likelihood being that one or two daughters named Amy died young.

Suffolk Co. Mass. Deeds, vol. 92-p. 238, date 29 Jan. 1745 proves that Mary (Williams) Parker, first wife of Jeremiah Parker, was a sister³ deceased Jonathan⁵ Williams & that therefore her ancestry was as given. The second wife of Jeremiah was styled "Mrs." only as a rather customary courtesy title, it is believed, because of an account of her widowed sister given in the 1876 Curtis manuscript.
That sister was named Hannah White before her first marriage, to Charles Venner. Her second was to Lieut.
Deborah Amidon of Mendon, Mass.

Jonathon " Parker was a "high whig" patriot at the time of the Revolution; an important member of the Boston Tea Party after hearing "Warren's address in the Old South Church;" and the "Cannon Hero" who so dexterously took and successfully hid the cannon in Roxbury.

A two page account in the 1876 Curtis manuscript; and numerous published town histories, including those of Holden, Mass., 1894; and Jay, Maine.

Handwritten text in Devanagari script, likely a letter or document. The text is written in a cursive style and is mostly illegible due to blurring. It appears to be a formal communication, possibly a letter of introduction or a report.

Handwritten text in Devanagari script, continuing the document. The text is also mostly illegible due to blurring. It seems to be a continuation of the previous section, possibly detailing specific information or a conclusion.

In an account of Mary Parker as administratrix, which the Judge granted 30 Nov. 1737. is the item: "To necessary Implem^{ts} of Household allowed the Widow for the necessary support of her Self & 9 Children the youngest being two years old - £50." (vol. 33-p. 334).

The naming of those nine children and the final arrangement about division of the estate is in "Bond to pay," etc. New Series vol. 19-page 446. date 7 February 1743 [1743-4 as indexing etc. prom] as follows: Know All Men -- That we Jeremiah Parker Housewright Ebenezer Gore Gent^r and Samuel Williams Jun^r: all of Roxbury -- are holden -- unto -- Judge of the Probate -- in the sum -- paying to each of his said Brothers & sisters the further sum of Ten Pounds ---

On that same 7 Feb. 1743-4 (vol. 37 pages 3 to 7)
 is made guardian of the four youngest children:
 of Jonathan Parker, "aged about Seventeen years";
 of Deborah Parker " " fifteen "
 of Timothy Parker " " thirteen " of Catharine Parker " " nine "

The statement that the youngest, Catharine, was "about nine" agrees with Widow Mary Parker's statement of not later than 30 Nov. 1737 that the youngest was two years old. But the "May 1735" birth date given in Catharine's granddaughter's 1876 manuscript would make her lack nine to a possible less than four months; which would be covered by the careful legal phrase, "about nine."

The son Timothy became a Captain in the French & Indian war and in an army report made "in Camp at Fort Edward July 26 - 1756" stated that he was 26 years old, born Roxbury & resident of Roxbury. This agrees with the guardianship record & the age on his gravestone.

Suffolk Co., Mass. Deeds, vol. 71-p. 181, date 7 April 1738. "Mary Parker, administr^r of the Estate of her Husband Timothy Parker late of Roxbury -- Innholder Deceased" deeded six acres in Roxbury to Samuel Curtis, price £500. [This doubtless went to pay debts on land purchases.]

The following appreciated record of Deacon Thomas Parker is kindly supplied by Mr. Clarence Almon Torrey, an expert genealogist:

Parker

1. Thomas Parker, an early settler at Lynn and Reading, Massachusetts, was admitted freeman May 17, 1637 and in 1638 had a grant of forty acres at Lynn. He lived in the part of Lynn called "Lynn Village, afterward the town of Reading, or removed to Reading about 1644.

On the Rev. Samuel Hough's list of members of the Reading Church, Sept. 29, 1648, Thomas Parker and his wife were mentioned. The records of the first pastor of the Reading Church, Rev. Henry Green, have long been missing. According to the inscription on his gravestone Deacon Parker "was won of the foundation of the church." His wife's name was Amy. She died Jan. 15, 1689/90.

Thomas Parker was a selectman in 1661, 1665, 1666, 1667 and 1669. He died Aug. 12, 1683, according to his gravestone in Wakefield, formerly a part of Reading.

There are conflicting statements which make ¹⁶³ it difficult to fix the year of his birth. It is generally believed that he was the Thomas Parker, aged 30, who came from England in 1635 in the Susan and Ellen. This record places his birth in or about 1605. According to his gravestone he was 74, hence born about 1609. The records of First Church, Reading, now in Wakefield, state that he was 72 and that he died of consumption. Altho' he is mentioned quite often in Middlesex County, Massachusetts records there does not seem to be any deposition in which his age is stated. These records imply that he was born between 1605 and 1611. Probably 1608, or 1609, is very nearly right.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or a page from a manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on a light-colored paper. The handwriting is fluid and connected, typical of the 18th or 19th century. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be underlined or emphasized. The overall appearance is that of a personal or official document from a past era.

Abigail Peale who married Lieut. Jeremiah Parker, Jr., was not the daughter of Robert, although I have long had a suspicion that the Abigail, Capt. in Salem, Sept. 9, 1745, dau. of Robert, is an error of the Salem records, and that it should be dau. of Jonathan, because she was the dau. of Jonathan and Bethia (Allen) ~~Peale~~ Peale who were married in Salem Feb. 16, 1744-45, according to the vital records. Jonathan Peale married 1st. Sarah Willard, and 2nd. Sarah Shattuck, and 3rd, Bethia Allen. Jonathan was born in Salem, Dec. 16, 1702, and died there Jan. 1, 1782, all living in the U. S. By Sarah he had Sarah, b. 1728, d. unmarried in 1819; Martha Peal b. Nov. 4, Sept. 9, 1729, m. - Cummings; Capt. Jonathan Peal, Jr., b. July 17, Sept. 18, 1731, m. Margaret Mason; Hannah Peal, b. Nov. 16, Sept. 18, 1732-33, m. Capt. John Carnes; Elizabeth Peal, b. Feb. 2, 1734-35, died young, and Elizabeth again, b. June 6, 1736.

No death record found for Sarah Shattuck whom he married Aug. 11, 1739, and no children recorded. Then he married Bethiah Allen Feb. 16,

1744-45, and I have not found the birth of 165 their daughter Abigail, but the father died in Salem Jan. 1, 1782, and on April 9, 1782, his four daughters, Sarah Pele, Martha Cummings, Hannah Carnes and Abigail Parker gave a receipt to their brother Jonathan Pele in connection with the settlement of their father's estate. Joseph Smith signed as a witness to Abigail Parker.

Abigail Parker and Joseph Smith were married
the next month, May 2, 1782, and on June 25, 1802 a quit claim deed was given ~~to~~ by Martha Cummings, widow, Sarah Pele, a single woman, Hannah Carnes, widow, all of Salem, and Joseph Smith, butcher, and Abigail Smith his wife, of Roxbury, Mass., quitclaiming to their brother Jonathan Pele, "all the real estate which our father owned," etc.

Oct. 24, 1809, Sarah Pele, Hannah Carnes, and Abigail Smith (Mrs. Cummings had already died), gave receipts for $3³⁰ each for mourning for their deceased brother Jonathan Pele.

So there cannot be any doubt that Abigail
Pele was the dau. of Jonathan and Bethia (Allen) Pele.

Jonathan Pele was the son of George

Peele, Jr., born in Salem Jan. 2, 1673, died there July 11, 1735, m. there July 28 (before 1697). Abigail Ager (Ager) dau. of Jonathan and Rebecca (Hill) Ager. George Peele was the son of George Peele, b. 1644, was living in Salem in 1689.

Bethiah Allen was the dau. of Joseph and Abigail (Hill) Allen of Salem. Joseph Allen was the son of Joseph and Bethiah Allen of Salem. Abigail Hill was the dau. of Zebulon and Elizabeth (Dike) Hill of Salem. Zebulon's parentage unknown to me.

Abigail (Peale) Parker had three sons by Joseph Smith, the oldest Jeremiah Parker Smith, which would certainly seem to indicate that her other son Jeremiah Parker was dead. Her second son was Jonathan Peale Smith, and the other son Abial Smith.
